

press clip

leash all day.

The cafe is open for lunch with a great menu or there are free public barbecues in the park as well, so bring along lunch or stay for dinner.

Email schnauzerseq@gmail.com.

Skysisters challenge

HORDES of skydiving enthusiasts will converge on Toogoolawah next week for the Skysisters Skydiving Convention.

Come along and see the passion, energy and excitement of more than 100 female skydivers, executing over 5000 jumps over a week-long event.

The Skysisters will be attempting to smash both national and world record all-female jumps, including the national record breaking 60-way formation and an over-40s formation, which both have records uncontested since 2005.

Free and open to the public, this is a unique opportunity to witness first-hand these record breaking all-women formation skydives

For more, email susie@skysisters.com.au.

Cancer council plans

ALL members of the public are invited to attend an informative meeting about the work of the cancer council and what it hopes to achieve in the Maroochy community in 2011, which is the 50th year of Cancer Council Queensland.

Local support in the way of volunteers is urgently needed.

The next meeting will be held on April 20 from 4pm to 5pm at the Cancer Council Maroochy, Credit Union Australia Plaza, cnr Maroochy Rd and Baden Powell St, Maroochy.

For more, phone 5451 6000.

Shareholders meet

THE Sunshine Coast branch of the Australian Shareholders Association is holding its monthly meeting on April 19.

The guest speaker is Godfrey Homewood, a financial adviser from the CBA, who will speak on the economic outlook for 2011.

The meeting begins at 10am at the Goodlife Centre, 100 Buderim Pines Dve, Buderim.

Morning tea will be provided and members and visitors are welcome.

For more, phone Don on 5445 1563.