

Northside Chronicle (Chermside)

Wednesday 4/05/2011

Page: 9
Section: General News
Region: Brisbane, AU
Circulation: 63294
Type: Suburban
Size: 310.35 sq.cms.

slice

slicemedia.com

press clip

I also do a lot of novelty jumps, and the lingerie jumps certainly fall into that category

- LISA PERDICHIZZI

HIGH JINKS: The Skysisters soar above Toogoolawah.
Picture: Steve Fitchett

LISA Perdichizzi from Wavell Heights decided to ditch the normal Easter celebrations to join a group of lingerie-clad female skydivers for a jump north-west of Brisbane.

As part of Skysisters 2011, women across Australia braved the cold temperatures to dive at Toogoolawah in the lingerie jump.

Ms Perdichizzi has been skydiving for 13 years and has completed around 3000 dives, including 25 dives on her 25th birthday – a record at the time.

The 33-year-old competed in the 2006 skydiving world championships and is now involved in coaching.

“I also do a lot of novelty jumps, and the lingerie jumps certainly fall into that category,” Ms Perdichizzi said.

She said diving in lingerie wasn't too cold as long as the sun shone.

Organiser Susie McLachlan said Skysisters were about girls getting together to celebrate the female form, push their boundaries and have some fun.

➔ For more information on Skysisters visit them at www.facebook.com/skysisters